Experience It! Giant's Causeway

Flanked by the wild Atlantic Ocean and a landscape of dramatic cliffs, for centuries the Giant's Causeway has inspired artists, stirred scientific debate, and captured the imagination of all who see it. As Ireland's only UNESCO World Heritage Site (designated in 1986), it's made up of some 40,000 massive black basalt columns sticking out of the sea. The dramatic sight of this natural phenomenon, almost 60 million years in the making, has inspired legends of giants striding over the sea to Scotland. Most say it was an Irishman named Finn McCool who created the causeway to meet his Scottish rival, who ripped it up as he made his escape. But some insist that the giant tried to build a path to see his true love, a lass in Scotland!

The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

There are numerous long touring days, with 8 hours of touring, excluding dinners.

This tour features hotels that have high-sided bathtubs that require you to step into the bath to shower.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at the time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

For the walking tour of Edinburgh, please wear comfortable walking shoes. There will be some hills and inclined walkways, cobblestoned streets, small alleys and stairs to ascend/descend to reach Edinburgh Castle.

Days of features are interchangeable.

St. Patrick's is a working cathedral and may close for religious events.

City center hotel rooms are quite often smaller than those in your home country and not all UK hotels are equipped with air conditioning.

Single accommodations are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Single rate subject to change based on availability. Triple rooms and adjoining rooms are not common in this part of Europe and may not be available.

*Trains from Coleraine to Derry are subject to scheduling changes, maintenance, and cancellation.
